

Jignesh bhatt:

1. Keep as general as (integrated with ERP) possible.
2. Yes will be interested
3. Relevance to the syllabus
4. Anything for book buy and sell
5. A blog where people can write technical queries which is open to everyone.
6. Try to restrict the users and keep it course wise. Ability to move it to general.
7. Interested to be a faculty moderator and administrator.
8. Keep separate profile for faculty and student.
9. Keep a count of users who use swear words and block the user who uses it.
10. Anonymous users not allowed.
11. Not initially open to all students it should be course specific. Students have read permission faculty has write permission.

From survey form:

1. Android
2. Price and edition Photo
3. students can also review but faculty should have more weightage. Separate student and faculty reviews.

Pratik shah:

1. yes ready
2. enough
3. yes any book
4. No, Donot code it from scratch. Active components like code compile and run. Also sketch images videos. Tex.
5. Do not moderate.
6. We have moodle for it
7. Provide link not video. No text books. Moderated. Not in our server.

From survey form:

1. tracking transaction and browse in mobile and sell in web
2. Book sharing (shared book shelf) then notification for deadline.

Learn the traits of individual. Common books recommendation based on traits of individuals.

Flexible some book 2 days some for 10 days and so on.

Black list users who do not submit the book after 3 notification and dont return the books. Block all his books. His books will go to the common wealth.

Blog :

Doesnt work. Literature committee

Personal diary where we can share it with others (some part of it).

Create a dynamic green board where everyone can write and everyone can edit and change the content. For some time of the day.

Ashish p:

1. Practical application available Project list in book
2. Any book
3. Obvious with decorum obvious.
4. Moderator Key words is necessary
5. based on what the note is for
6. Web
7. Class forum and course open forum
8. Equal weightage to students
9. Notice board

Muttu

1. within domain
2. ease of readability, flow, questions, relevance, suggest for the next book.
3. Surely
4. Yes any topic of interest to discuss.
5. Leave it open initially and then control it.
6. Language restriction.
7. Not interested in moderation
8. Topic, can be criticized, difficulty
9. History of the person (track record)